INVESTIGATION

In the Initiation Report, Sergeant Martin, #2192, Unit 022, stated that she responded to [REDACTED] on 22 November 2009, at 1518 hours, for a Domestic Battery involving an off-duty Chicago Police Officer, now known as the accused, Officer McElligott. Victim [REDACTED] the estranged wife of Officer McElligott, stated that she and Officer McElligott argued over the custody of their four mutual children when Officer McElligott knocked her to the floor and punched her about the face. Victims [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] mother and brother, tried to separate them by pulling Officer McElligott off of [REDACTED]. Officer McElligott then choked [REDACTED] and ripped his shirt, and struck [REDACTED] on the right side of her jaw. Sergeant Martin observed a visible bump on [REDACTED] forehead and bruises on her arms. An ambulance responded to the scene but [REDACTED] refused treatment. Beat 2262B went to Officer McElligott's residence but did not locate him. (Att. 3).

In the Synoptic Report, Sergeant Spellman, #981, essentially stated the same as the Initiation Report, adding that on 24 November 2009, Officer McElligott came to the Internal Affairs Division from the Employee Assistance Program to turn himself in. Officer McElligott was arrested for Domestic Battery and subsequently stripped of his police powers on 27 November 2009. Sergeant Spellman stated that he became aware that Officer McElligott may have been "depressed over family issues." Officer McElligott voluntarily surrendered his weapon to Sergeant Spellman. Officer McElligott had his police powers restored on 29 March 2010. (Atts. 12, 14 – 16, 47 – 49).

The Arrest Report for Officer McElligott and General Offense Case Report, RD #HR-655884, essentially stated that same as the Initiation Report and IAD Synoptic Report. [REDACTED] signed the Criminal Complaint against Officer McElligott alleging that he knocked her to the floor and struck her about the face with a closed fist. (Atts. 13, 17, 29).

Victim [REDACTED] declined to cooperate with this investigation, stating telephonically to IPRA Investigator Coscey, #111, that it was not in the "best interest" of her children to cooperate with the IPRA investigation because she did not want to interfere with Officer McElligott's employment status. Victims [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] both declined to cooperate with this investigation and related that their decision was "in support" of [REDACTED]. However, an Affidavit Override was issued by IAD Chief Rivera. (Atts. 23, 24, 49).

[REDACTED] obtained Order of Protection #D9-444884 on 25 November 2009, naming Officer McElligott as the Respondent and ordering him to have "no contact by any means" but allowing for visitation with their mutual children if arranged through specific relatives. The Petition for Order of Protection #D9-444884 reiterated the narrative account of the incident on 22 November 2009, found in the arrest and case reports. The Order of Protection was terminated on 11 January 2010, when Erin

McElligott failed to appear in court, at which time the charge of Domestic Battery was classified as Stricken Off – Leave Reinstate (SOL). (Atts. 30 – 36, 50).

The Office of Emergency Management and Communication (OEMC) recording for Event #0932610263 documented that Cathy [REDACTED] called 911 on 22 November 2009, and reported that her son-in-law, Officer McElligott, came into her home at [REDACTED] and “started beating” on her daughter, [REDACTED]. When [REDACTED] told him to leave, he hit her brother, [REDACTED] when he tried to get him off of [REDACTED]. OEMC Event Query #0932610901 documented that an ambulance was requested for [REDACTED] but that she refused treatment. (Att. 9, 10, 25, 26).

There was no record of an Ambulance Report for [REDACTED] (Att. 27).

Evidence Technician photographs of [REDACTED] taken on 22 November 2009, depict a bump and swelling to her upper left forehead, bruising to her right hip, and bruises on her upper left arm. Evidence Technician Photographs were also taken of [REDACTED] and depict red marks to his neck and the inside of his upper left arm. (Att. 8).

In an Accused Statement on 3 February 2011, Officer McElligott stated that he and [REDACTED] separated in July of 2009 and that they filed for divorce in March of 2010. Officer McElligott related that [REDACTED] left him for “somebody else” and moved in with her mother, [REDACTED] at [REDACTED]. Officer McElligott related that he went there on 22 November 2009, at approximately 1500 hours, because he was scheduled to pick up his four minor children for visitation. [REDACTED] met him on the porch and then told him that he could not have visitation with the children because he had not agreed to the sum of money she wanted. [REDACTED] then told him that all the children were in the bathtub and not ready to go.

Officer McElligott related that he and [REDACTED] went inside to discuss the matter further. They then argued primarily for approximately ten minutes about money and visitation. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were both in the residence. [REDACTED] then began pushing Officer McElligott out the door after denying him scheduled visitation. [REDACTED] came downstairs and joined [REDACTED] in pushing Officer McElligott out the door. [REDACTED] also “jumped on” Officer McElligott’s back. Officer McElligott stated that he left the residence after he was able to get [REDACTED] off his back and as [REDACTED] called the police. Officer McElligott related that he refused to leave the residence without his children, and that he felt like he was “attacked” by his wife and brother-in-law.

Officer McElligott stated that the only physical contact that he had with [REDACTED] was to push her back after she pushed him on his chest. Officer McElligott denied knocking [REDACTED] to the floor, and also denied getting on top of [REDACTED] and punching her. When shown Evidence Technician photographs of Erin

INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY
LOG #1032039

McElligott, Officer McElligott stated that he did not know how [REDACTED] had obtained a bump on her forehead, and did not recall her ever being pushed onto the floor. Officer McElligott did not seek medical treatment and did not recall sustaining any injuries. (Att. 45).

In a Second Accused Statement, Officer McElligott denied choking [REDACTED] stating that his only physical interaction with Mr. [REDACTED] occurred when Mr. [REDACTED] jumped on his back and he pushed him off. Officer McElligott was unsure as to how Mr. [REDACTED] shirt was ripped. Officer McElligott related that Mr. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] "attacked" him as they tried to push him out the door. Officer McElligott denied punching [REDACTED] on the jaw, adding that he had no physical interaction with her outside of her "attacking" him. (Atts. 57, 58).

CONCLUSION

The Reporting Investigator recommends that Allegations # 1—5, that the accused, Officer Joseph McElligott, #18715, Unit 008, knocked [REDACTED] to the floor and struck her on the face with a closed fist; "choked" [REDACTED] and ripped is shirt; and punched [REDACTED] on the jaw be NOT SUSTAINED. [REDACTED] did not cooperate with this investigation and did not provide a statement to IPRA. Sean and [REDACTED] did not cooperate with this investigation and did not provide statements to IPRA. Officer McElligott denied knocking [REDACTED] to the floor, and also denied punching [REDACTED] about the head and body. Officer McElligott stated that the only physical contact that he had with her was to respond to her pushing him by pushing back. In his statement to IPRA, Officer McElligott stated that he was "attacked" by [REDACTED] who pushed him, and then by [REDACTED] who jumped on his back. Officer McElligott denied choking Mr. [REDACTED] and related that he did not know how Mr. [REDACTED] shirt was ripped. Officer McElligott also denied punching Ms. [REDACTED] Although Officer McElligott was arrested for Domestic Battery on complaints signed by [REDACTED] the charges were SOL when she failed to appear in court.

Although Evidence Technician photographs depict swelling and redness to [REDACTED] forehead, and bruising to her upper left arm and right hip, without her statement, it is not known exactly how these injuries were sustained. The Reporting Investigator is unable to answer the question relative to the injuries occurring as a result of Office McElligott striking her or as a result of her initiation contact with him. Did they occur as a result of Officer McElligott striking her or as a result of her initiating contact with him? It is unclear if [REDACTED] was injured by Officer McElligott or as a result of her relatives, Cathy and [REDACTED] attempting to separate Officer McElligott and [REDACTED] It is also unclear if Mr. [REDACTED] shirt was ripped as a result of Officer McElligott, or by one of his relatives. At this time, there is insufficient evidence to determine if these allegations occurred as alleged. Therefore, these allegations should be NOT SUSTAINED.
